Kurt D. Weaver

Partner

Womble Bond Dickinson

Kurt brings confidence and a tenacious drive to a wide array of mass tort claims and litigation, and he consistently achieves his clients' objectives – whether through a jury verdict, judge's order, or out-of-court resolution.

In addition to being a highly-regarded mass tort trial lawyer, Kurt leads Womble Bond Dickinson's Food, Beverage and Agriculture Team. In this role, he counsels agricultural product and consumer goods companies on labeling and marketing issues, and provides guidance to food industry clients on such issues as foodborne illness responses and marketing to children.
