Bertrand Emond wins BRCGS CEO Award (Europe) at Food Safety Europe in London

BRCGS are pleased to announce their 2020 CEO Award (Europe) was presented to Bertrand Emond, Head of Training at Campden BRI, at their Food Safety Europe conference in London earlier this month.

This award is in recognition of the commitment demonstrated by Bertrand in expanding the reach of the BRCGS Standards and certification scheme throughout Europe.

Bertrand has been a long-term supporter of the BRCGS programmes and organisation, wherever possible bringing the benefits of the BRCGS tools to Campden BRI and its members.

Bertrand Emond, Head of Training at Campden BRI, said: 'Being recognised among my peers at Food Safety Europe was a real honour. What a compliment to be acknowledged for my work and getting the prize from the CEO of BRCGS! I am passionate about supporting the food industry in the areas of skills, knowledge, behaviours and achieving safety and quality culture excellence.'

Mark Proctor, CEO of BRCGS, said: 'The BRCGS Food Safety (Europe) Awards programme is committed to recognising both individuals and corporations who strive for excellence in food safety standards. I'm delighted that Bertrand Emond was awarded the CEO Award (Europe) at this year's conference. The award recognises Bertrand's excellent contribution to food safety training and his commitment to the BRCGS Standards.'

BRCGS' flagship conferences, Food Safety Europe and Food Safety Americas are run annually in their respective regions in order to bring together the sector and lead in the development of consumer and food safety.

The one-day conference in Europe delivers valuable insights and high-level, constructive knowledgeshare designed specifically to improve European food safety management in retail, food service and manufacturing environments.

For the first time in 2020, the three-day conference in the Americas region will bring together BRCGS' flagship food safety conference and the BRCGS Delivery Partners stream.
