What are the benefits of attending a training with an ATP?

All ATPs are industry professionals that have many years of experience. As part of the process to become an ATP we all have to undergo a thorough training and pass the BRCGS ATP exam to a higher standard than would be expected of our delegates. So, when being trained by an ATP you know that you are in professional, competent hands of someone with extensive knowledge and experience.

What do you value most as an Approved training Partner?

Being part of the BRCGS family, having an opportunity to deliver quality training to a high standard that is certified by one of the best-known training and certification body in the industry.

Why do you think BRCGS training is valuable?

The training is informative, practical and based on extensive industry knowledge. It is developed by a highly reputable team which is valued and recognized throughout the industry not just in the UK but also globally.
