About Janet

Janet is a driven Senior Food Safety/Risk Manager and qualified Environmental Health Officer with over twenty years of technical experience.

Her first career as a chef included her living and working abroad for three years, before returning to the UK to build her technical food safety career. She has developed her career, working across a number of sectors including local government, consultancy and more recently with one of the UK and Ireland's largest QSR brand, with over 950 restaurants and multiple franchisee partners. Her experiences lie within enforcement, consultancy and large international business. During this time she has been responsible for executing brand risk strategies across a number of sectors and driving culture, resulting in reduced risk profiles, insurance premiums and improved safety management.

Having recently joined HelloFresh, the world's leading meal kit company, her role in the International Food Safety Quality Assurance team, plays a critical part in developing and driving standards and food safety throughout the HelloFresh system. She is directly accountable for Distribution Centre food safety compliance and for the health & safety strategy across 13 international geographies, while also elevating a food safety culture across the brand.

Since joining HelloFresh

The world's leading meal kit company, her role in the International Food Safety Quality Assurance team, plays a critical part in developing and driving standards and food safety throughout the HelloFresh system. She is directly accountable for Distribution Centre food safety compliance and for the health & safety strategy across 13 international geographies, while also elevating a food safety culture across the brand.

Since joining HelloFresh she continues to work with the team on ensuring the right strategy and procedures are in place for Covid-19 management, so the business continues to trade in the right way, whilst prioritising the safety of their people and product.

She is a heart led leader who is passionate about people and coaching and developing others to be the best version of themselves. She has a strong belief that everyone can achieve their fullest potential with belief, coaching, hard work and little bit of luck! She keeps safety real by collaborating and taking people with her, with a pragmatic approach to compliance, whilst ensuring the business operation can continue to grow and develop.

She lives in South Northants with her husband and two cats, keeps fit by running and loves to cook, bake and travel.

About BRCGS

BRCGS is a leading brand and consumer protection organisation, used by over 29,000 certificated suppliers over 130 countries, with certification issued through a global network of accredited certification bodies.

BRCGS' Standards guarantee the standardisation of quality, safety and operational criteria and ensure that manufacturers fulfil their legal obligations and provide protection for the end consumer.

Certification to BRCGS' Standards is now often a fundamental requirement of leading retailers, manufacturers, and food service organisations.
