

SUCCESS STORY

Name: Daniel Veron

Job title: Quality Manager

Country: Argentina

Tell us about your background, role, and interests outside of work.

I am currently the Quality Manager at Aerosol Packaging Argentina, a company that manufactures tinplate aerosol containers. I enjoy contributing to and being part of significant changes wherever I work.

I have been trained in several standards, but I consider BRCGS to be a major advantage, as it provides a deeper understanding of Product Safety Management and offers international recognition.

Why did you join the BRCGS Professional Programme?

To protect my company's brand, strengthen my knowledge of Product Safety Management, and gain international recognition.

What value do you personally feel the BRCGS Professional certification brings to you?

It has given me a sense of belonging to a wider community of professionals, enhanced my expertise in Product Safety Management, and improved my employability.

How has the training helped improve operations at your site/company?

The training has improved product safety, resulted in stronger audit ratings, and increased credibility with external customers.

What did you most enjoy about the training?

I particularly enjoyed the trainer's approach, the training techniques, the delivery method, and the interactive tasks.

What are you most looking forward to within the Professional Community?

I look forward to networking opportunities, connecting with like-minded professionals, and accessing exclusive benefits such as micro-learning.

How do you plan to keep your skills up to date?

By enrolling in additional training, participating in mentoring, attending conferences and events, completing e-learning and webinars, and pursuing third-party industry qualifications such as a university degree.

What are your career ambitions?

My goals are to lead my own team of technical professionals, apply the Professional Programme approach to other areas of my company, start my own business, and establish myself as a recognised industry leader.
