

Company Name:

Congebee

Can you please introduce your company?

Congebee is a national company founded in Quebec City and operating in 5 Canadian provinces. Its 12 energy-efficient facilities provide local producers with freezing and food processing services as well as a complete logistics solution. Congebee is a transparent employer committed to the well-being, development opportunities and recognition of its employees' work. Congebee encourages the development of local markets and food self-sufficiency through the solid expertise of its employees who are at the heart of the company's success.

Why did you choose the BRCGS Standard?

Enhance customer confidence in the service provided.

Quality systems are recognized worldwide, which opens more opportunities for international customers.

What are the benefits being BRCGS certificated?

Encouragement of the quality culture,

Standardization of processes,

Involvement and commitment of everyone, starting with top management,

The confidence of the service offered to customers.